About Me

I'm a creative, attention-to-detail and well-organised person with a passion for anything involving design and technology.

Changing from a registered Pharmacist into Web Developer (specifically Front-End) as it aligns with my passion of creating digital products. I have recently completed the SheCodes Web Developer Certificate and I am excited to use my coding knowledge as well as transfer my skills from pharmacy of being a strong problem-solver, good communicator with leadership and management skills to work in a dynamic team environment.
